

Slask

Stanislaw Hadyna's Song and Dance Ensemble

"...When the lights go out, this captivating memory stays before the eyes of the audience." - Le Monde

"...Come on in! The city is crazy about them! This spectacle swept all of London off its feet – it is the most colourful and enthralling event ever." - Daily Herald

"...They said the Ensemble contains 100 members, but when those young, energetic people came on stage, it seemed like there were over a thousand of them." - The New York Times

"...the 'SLASK' Ensemble literally whisks the audience off their seats." – Neue Berliner Illustrierte

"...Such direction is quite rare. Despite fantastic discipline, the whole spectacle seems to be an improvised play. The artists enjoyed it as much as the audience." - Stockholm Tidningen

BRIEF SYNOPSIS:

The Stanisław Hadyna Song and Dance Ensemble "Śląsk" is one of the most recognizable artistic brands in Poland and abroad. Its repertoire includes over a dozen artistic programmes - from great spectacles that bring a colorful and dynamic panorama of folklore from all regions of the country, to educational concerts and presentations of classical and sacral music.

Founded in 1953, "Śląsk" is the lifetime achievement of Stanisław Hadyna and Elwira Kamińska, to whom the Ensemble owes the foundations of its brilliance. Today, "Śląsk" is a cultural institution with huge performance capacity, realizing about 200 concerts a year. The Ensemble consists of more than a hundred artists: choir, ballet and orchestra. Its repertoire features both programs whose performance involves the full artistic lineup, as well as individual artistic groups and soloists.

A great Ambassador of Poland to the world - "Śląsk" has performed over 9 thousand concerts for over 27 million spectators in 44 countries on five continents. Since May 2017, the "Śląsk" Ensemble has been the Cultural Institution of the Government of the Silesian Voivodeship co-managed by the Ministry of Culture and National Heritage.
