COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Water Street Dance Milwaukee is committed to community outreach and education to create opportunities for individuals of all ages and backgrounds to experience the joy of dance. Through our outreach program, 4KidsByKids, communities are engaged in dance events that are both interactive and educational.

In partnership with the Marcus Center, Water Street Dance MKE offers an exciting and athletic dance presentation. Students learn about the dance profession, the different styles of dance, why individuals choose dance, the elements of choreography, and the lifestyle of a dancer.

Through fun and interactive audience participation, entertaining repertory excerpts, and informative narration, our dancers inspire students to learn, create, and enjoy dance.

Water Street Dance Milwaukee has extensive experience in leading outreach classes, workshops, and events. Our outreach program is adaptable to all audiences, as we believe that the benefits of dance are for everyone. Our program has worked with individuals of all ages and backgrounds, including both children and adults with disabilities.

About Our Company

Morgan Williams founder + artistic director

Morgan “Mo” Williams is originally from Chicago, IL. While attending Chicago Academy for the Arts, Williams had the privilege of studying under Randy Duncan, Guillermo Leyva, and Anna Paskveska. Following Chicago Academy for the Arts, Mo received and accepted his first professional contract to dance with Dance Kaleidoscope in Indianapolis, IN at the age of 18. Following his time with Dance Kaleidoscope, Mo continued his professional dance career by performing with numerous companies: Momenta Dance Company, Cerqua Rivera, Joel Hall & Dancers, Chicago Dance Crash, Deeply Rooted, Eisenhower Dance & Visceral Dance Chicago.

Additionally, Williams was featured on Season 10 of “SYTYCD,” and succeeded to an L.A. finalist on the show in Season 11. Mo’s expanded performance credits include Detroit Opera House’s productions of Aida, Pearl Fishers, Carmina Burana, Mac Cosmetics, and ESPN Wisconsin Sports Awards.

In addition to his professional training and performance credits, Mo is also both a committed teacher and choreographer. Mo has trained dancers from many studios, dance conventions, and workshops that have spanned across the United States. Currently he is serving as Director of competitive companies at In Motion Dance Studio. Furthermore, Mo is the proud Director of thus Water Street Dance Milwaukee.
