DANCERS UNLIMITED
NYC & HAWAII

“Kuo’s goal is to continue to celebrate Hawaii’s diverse cultures in the creative form of dance while sharing that spirit of Aloha with everyone.”

- Honolulu Midweek

BRIEF SYNOPSIS:

A bicoastal dance company with bases in both Hawaii and New York City, the essence of Dancers Unlimited is creating powerful movement narratives for the advancement of the community. Established in 2009 by Artistic Director Linda Kuo, the company was formed to offer free youth dance classes on Furlough Fridays in Hawaii, when Hawaii’s Department of Education canceled school on Fridays due to funding cuts - since then, the company has presented work in Hawaii, NYC, and China garnering accolades for Kuo’s entertaining genre-blending movement and its strong educational outreach mission.
