BRIEF SYNOPSIS

Eisenhower Dance Detroit, Michigan's premier contemporary dance company, marks its 30-year milestone in 2020 of performing throughout the USA and around the world as one of the most distinguished and celebrated artists of this era. Recognized for its exciting works by renowned choreographers such as David Parsons, Lar Lubovitch, Joshua Peugh, Ron de Jesus, and Gina Patterson, as well as the signature dances of Artistic Director Stephanie Pizzo. Pizzo brings an innovative new contemporary angle to the company's repertoire with cutting edge touring programs such as "ARC" and "The Light Show". Hailed as "dance that touches the soul" by Susan Hall-Balduf of the Detroit Free Press, Eisenhower Dance Detroit has made contemporary dance accessible in countries such as Russia, Israel, and Poland. Eisenhower Dance Detroit has received numerous grants and awards for its work including support from the National Endowment for the Arts, the Kresge Foundation, the Michigan Council for Arts and Cultural Affairs, and many others to forward their groundbreaking and impactful work.
