

FOUND MOVEMENT GROUP

BRIEF SYNOPSIS:

Found Movement Group, based in Nashville, is a diverse dance ensemble of movers of different backgrounds integrated to form a creative whole. Featuring dancers of all ages, sizes, genders, races, and ability levels, this company with an inclusive mission produces hard-hitting dance with social consciousness. Found provides its audience the opportunity to dive into a world which is set in nontraditional performance settings with innovative lighting design and intricate costumes, all top off with acrobatic choreography and physical acting. The company also places an emphasis on quality movement education and even has a youth company counterpart giving young dancers the opportunity to create and explore their art without judgement or the pressures of competition.
