COMPAÑÍA
COLOMBIANA
DE BALLET

Somos tu mejor compañía

BRIEF SYNOPSIS

Founded in the year 2000, Colombia National Ballet is the only professional company of its kind with great prestige and international recognition throughout South America and the world. The company received accolades on their recent 28-city tour throughout China performing a beautiful rendition of “Don Quixote” to sold out audiences in the prestigious Poly Theaters. The company has been invited to return to China for an extensive tour of “Swan Lake” in the Spring 2020.

In 2019 the company appointed their newest Artistic Directors Oscar Chacón alongside Roberto Zamorano, preceded by the German Cuban dancer and choreographer Gonzalo Galguera in 2015. This new era represents a more defined approach and refined artistic profile, fostering a focus to present universal classical repertory and groundbreaking contemporary choreography. With touring engagements across Europe, Central America, North America, and Asia, the company has reached a level of critical acclaim, performing in renowned venues such as The Kennedy Center, the United Nations Theater in Paris, and Netherlands Dans Theater, to name a few. With the dancers’ combined technical skill and artistic mastery, the Colombia National Ballet is a true ambassador and serves as the forefront for classical dance in Latin America.
