KAIROS

DANCE THEATER

“KAIROS Dance Theater is simply breathtaking. DeAnna Pellecchia’s choreography is an incredible combination of sheer athleticism and physical poetry.”

– Dawn Simmons, Director of Performing Arts | BOSTON CENTER FOR THE ARTS

“...provocative, unusual, and moving...one of those events where multiple art forms were joined and presented at their highest caliber. The sold out, cheering audience will be talking about this very special night for years to come.”

– David Kuehn, Executive Director | COTUIT CENTER FOR THE ARTS

“They moved with both grace and strength...All of the dancers shaped the space with daring and skill...So much beautiful, yet simple, magic...Each layer upon layer made it all sparkle further and deeper into viewers’ hearts and minds.”

– Kathryn Boland | DANCE INFORMA MAGAZINE

Brief Synopsis

Combining daring, athletic dance technique with visual art and live music, Boston’s KAIROS Dance Theater creates a commanding physical landscape that pushes the boundaries of live performance. Over the past 15 years, the company’s immersive, multi-sensory shows have been featured as a ‘Critics’ Pick’ fifteen times by the Boston Globe; and presented in galleries, museums, theaters, and site-specific landscapes throughout New England, New York, Korea, France and Russia. KAIROS’ collaboratively crafted performances use dynamic, visual story-telling as a catalyst to empower, inspire and transform audiences and performers alike.
